

★ Parish Staff ★

David Reaume
Director of Maintenance

David is from Newport, Michigan and has been in Alaska since 1995. David and his family came to Alaska as Volunteer Missionaries with the North Alaska Catholic Church and were assigned to St. Mary's, Alaska. David was the on site supervisor for the construction of the new Church in Pilot Station. The Yupik people of Pilot Station named David, Son of Church and presented him with a black beaver hat when the Church was dedicated. David served in the Army and is a Viet Nam Vet. David has three children and one grand daughter. In case you didn't know David is married to our parish secretary, Debbie. David's favorite past times are fishing, hunting, walking, watching old movies and reading.