

★ Parish Staff ★

Effie Caldarola
Coordinator for
Stewardship & Hospitality

Effie was born in Nebraska and graduated from Creighton University in Omaha. She taught high school history and English for five years, including three as a Jesuit Volunteer in St. Marys, Alaska. She and her husband Jim married and moved to Anchorage in 1978. They have three children, Elizabeth, Michael and Maria. Effie is a writer for the Catholic Anchor and a syndicated columnist for Catholic News Service. She is currently enrolled in Seattle University's Master in Pastoral Studies program.