Deacon Ken
Pastoral Associate

Deacon Ken was born in New York, raised in Baltimore, Maryland, where he graduated from Loyola College and married Miriam. He and the family came to Anchorage in 1976 via the military. After being ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on December 6, 1981, at Holy Family Cathedral, Deacon Ken served in various Archdiocesan ministries while assigned to St. Patrick's Church, until his re-assignment to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in September, 1994. Deacon Ken and his wife, Miriam, have been married since 1961 and have three adult children and four grandchildren.
